Reading Rocks!
A Dr. Seuss Birthday Celebration
Grant Elementary School
February 28, 2017 6:30-8:00 p.m.

Grant Elementary School, located at 1106 Philip Avenue in Norfolk, will be the home of a family fun night in honor of Dr. Seuss's birthday. The author, well known for his delightful works of children's literature, would have turned 113 this year.

This event, provided in conjunction with Read Across America, will be held on Tuesday, February 28 from 6:30-8:00 in the school gym. Students attending Grant Elementary School, and their families and friends, will be entertained with a variety of great free activities that evening including:

- "Rock Collecting" presentation by Linda Hammond
- Seuss Read Aloud with the Norfolk High School Drama Team
- Face Painting
- "Reading Rocks" with Norfolk's own rock star Jim Casey
- Cookie Decorating
- Hat Making
- Library

There will also be a photo booth on site to take funny photos with your friends. (cost $1 each). A raffle will be selling tickets to win a grand prize called "A Night with the Cat! How about that?" as well as a Dr. Seuss blanket.

Last year over 350 people attended this fun evening that celebrates reading and it is Grant Elementary School's largest celebration of the year. We hope that you can join us and help share the story that reading is fun!
